A Photo = 100 Words

Cheetahs can be superheros, explorers, entertainers or anything. Write or draw a story about cheetahs. Get creative! The quote "A picture is worth a 1000 words" expressed by early poets and writers inspired this activity.

Supplies:

- Cheetah photos (2 attached or find another one)
- Piece of paper or notebook

How to Play:

1. Choose a cheetah photo and write 100 words (or any # of words you'd like) telling a story about the photo. Or draw pictures to describe a story about the cheetahs in the photo.

2. Ideas:

- Tell a story about the cheetahs and what they are doing, thinking, dreaming about or planning.
- Include other characters that are perhaps just out of the frame of the photo or will be arriving to visit soon.
- Great creative with your stories and use your imagination. Have fun!
